

Building a Bridge to Better Health Coalition

2015 - A Year in Review

2015 MEMBERSHIP

Individuals

- December 2014 = 138
- December 2015 = 160

Organizations

- December 2014 = 67
- December 2015 = 77

Participant Categories

- Academy of Medicine Foundation
- Accountable Care Organization
- Acute Care Hospitals
- Area Agency on Aging and Disability
- Assisted Living
- Disease-Specific Orgs.
- Geriatric Care Management
- Health Department
- Health Information Network
- Health System
- Home Care
- Home Health
- Hospice and/or Palliative Care
- Hospital
- Housing
- Independent Living
- Insurance
- Mobility Equipment
- Office on Aging
- Pharmaceutical
- Pharmacies / Pharmacists
- Physician Practices
- Quality Improvement Org.
- Respiratory Services & Equipment
- School of Pharmacy
- Senior Directory
- Skilled Nursing Facility
- Virtual Care/ Monitoring

2015 PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS / PRESENTATIONS

- Blount Discount Pharmacy – January 2015
- MedSync Program @ East Tennessee Discount Drugs – January 2015
- Belew Drug Family of Pharmacies – April 2015
- Mac's Pharmacy – May 2015
- Bluegrass Health Coalition Project (Lexington, KY) – June 2015
- Qsource / atom Alliance Long-Term Care Initiative – August 2015
- Data Overview of East TN Area Readmissions Initiative – September 2015
- Knoxville – Knox Co. CAC Office on Aging – October 2015

Building a Bridge to Better Health Coalition

2015 HIGHLIGHTS

Building a Bridge to Better Health Coalition Website Created

Charter Workgroup – Developed BBBHC Charter

- Signed and Initiated by Members

Active workgroups

- Medication Safety
- Post-Acute

Members shared case studies

Members provided updates on care transition-focused initiatives

Added teleconference capabilities for meetings

Value Gained through Attendance

- Best Practice Sharing through Presentations and Networking
- Networking Opportunities
- Relationship Building
- Increased Knowledge of Community Resources
- Gaining ideas for own organization

THANK YOU

Thank you to everyone who has shared their time, talents and expertise over the past year! Your input is invaluable to meeting the needs of East Tennesseans.